PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

The new Kent Tekapo Inbuilt Outdoor Fire offers a seamless, built-in option within our upgraded Tekapo range, allowing you to create a custom-framed outdoor fireplace. Designed for both warmth and outdoor cooking, it features an upgraded stainless steel fire log grate for enhanced durability and an improved pizza stone that fits perfectly in the top tray for wood-fired pizzas. The redesigned door with a magnetic attachment ensures a secure seal when not in use, while the new low-profile hood minimizes installation materials.

A flue kit is included for proper ventilation, making this the ideal addition to your outdoor entertaining space.
